

Create your own

HEART HERO

Art Contest

American
Heart
Association.

Locally sponsored by

PennState Health
Children's Hospital

Heart Heroes are all around us. They inspire us to live healthy lifestyles. They show us what it means to be a survivor. They make it their mission to help others live longer, healthier lives. They might be a colorful character or they might be someone in your community.

Show us what a Heart Hero looks like to you.

Winners will be invited to attend a reception and have their artwork displayed at Penn State Children's Hospital.

The contest is open to students in grades 4-8.
Artwork must be submitted on 8.5" x 11" paper.

All submissions must be labeled on the back with the student's full name, family contact (phone number, email address), grade level, homeroom teacher name and school name.

Submit artwork by February 1, 2019 to your art or classroom teacher, or mail to:
American Heart Association, Attn: Caryn Andes, 4250 Crums Mill Rd., Suite 100, Harrisburg, PA 17112.

Winners will be notified by February 28, 2019. Reception to be held in March 2019.

Winning artwork will be published and shared with the general public.